Utilization of Employment Exchanges

*24. MAULANA OBAIDULLAH KHAN AZMI:
SHRI MOTIUR RAHMAN:

Will the Minister of LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that now -a-days employment exchanges in the country are playing little role in getting employment to the educated unemployed; and;

(b) if so, in what manner Government propose to utilize these employment exchanges in a more fruitful manner?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI K. CHANDRA SEKHAR RAO): (a) and (b) 50 to 55 percent of the Placement made by the Employment Exchanges in a year is of educated jobseekers (10th and above) registered with the Employment Exchanges.

The Employment Exchanges have following two major functions in addition to Registration and Placement of the Job-seekers:

(i) Collection of Labour Market Information for creation of data-base in the assessment of demand and supply of labour, preparing career literature for Counselling and Vocational Guidance; and

(ii) Career-counselling & vocational guidance to the job-seekers so as to help them in shaping their careers.

In the present employment-unemployment scenario, the activities being performed by the Employment Exchanges are of great importance.

(b) and (c) The existing Guidelines on MPLADS have been revised and issued on 16.11.2005. The details thereof are given in the statement.

Statement

Detailed Guidlines on MPLADS

Member of Parliament Local Area Development Scheme (MPLADS) is under implementation since 1993-94. The Guidelines under the Scheme were revised from time to time and lastly it was revised in April, 2002. Subsequently, certain clarificatory circulars have been issued. Now, a comprehensive revision has been made and a fresh set of Guildelines has been issued on 16th November, 2005. These Guidelines are based on the feed back received from Hon'ble MPs, the suggestions of the Committees on MPLADS (Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha), the observations made by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India and the operational experience of the monitoring of the scheme.

In the revised Guidelines, some of the improvements are as under:

i) Important sectors like drinking water, education, public health, sanitation and roads have been given priority.
